CITY OF FARMINGTON LICENSE PROCESS

3.2 On-Sale Beer and Wine License Strong Beer License

Wine licenses can be issued to restaurants for the sale of wine not exceeding $14 \%$ alcohol. A holder of a wine license who is also licensed to sell on-sale 3.2 beer and whose gross receipts are at least $60 \%$ attributable to the sale of food, is authorized to sell intoxicating malt liquor at on-sale without an additional license. Please review Title 3 Chapter 12 Section 4E of the City Code. All licenses expire December 31 of each year. Following is the process to obtain a 3.2 on-sale beer and wine license:

1. Application forms, fees, and a Certificate of Insurance showing liquor liability through December 31 of the current year should be submitted to the City of Farmington.
2. A background check will be performed by the Farmington Police Department.
3. A public hearing is required to be held at a City Council meeting. The public hearing requires 10 days notice prior to the meeting. The public hearing notice is submitted to the newspaper a week prior to this 10 -day period. Council meetings are held the first and third Mondays of every month.
4. Upon City Council approval, the application is submitted to the State for approval. The State can take up to one week to approve it. At this time, the applicant should submit an application to the state for a Buyer's Card which enables them to buy wine and beer to sell. Upon State approval, a license is issued. The entire application process takes four weeks.
5. Fees: On-Sale Beer $$ 250 /$ year

Wine $300/year
Wine License Investigation Fee $$ 100$
Total Fees: $\quad $ 650$

CITY OF FARMINGTON - DATA PRACTICES ACT NOTICE

Minnesota law requires that you be informed of your rights as they pertain to private information ("private data") collected from you by the City of Farmington ("the City"). Private data is that information held by the City which is available to you, but not to the public.

You have the right to refuse to provide the information requested on this application form, however, without certain information, the City may be unable to approve the license applied for. If you feel that certain information requested is an unwarranted invasion of privacy, please contact the Human Resources Director.

The dissemination and the use of private data we collect is limited to that necessary for the administration and management of the City's licensing program. Persons or agencies with whom this information may be shared include:

- City personnel, including law enforcement personnel, administering the license program;
- The Bureau of Criminal Apprehension;
- The City Attorney and support staff of the City Attorney's office;
- Federal, state, local, and contracted private auditors;
- Federal and State agencies with oversight or responsibility related to the licensed business;
- Those individuals or agencies as to whom you give your express written permission for release of the information.

Unless otherwise authorized by state statute or federal law, other governmental agencies utilizing the reported private data must also treat the information as private.

You may wish to exercise your rights as contained in the Minnesota Government Data Practices Act. These rights include:

- The right to see and obtain copies of data maintained about you;
- The right to be told the contents and meaning of the data; and
- The right to contest the accuracy and completeness of the data.

To exercise these rights, contact the Farmington Human Resources Director at 430 Third Street, Farmington, MN 55024 (651) 280-6800. I have read and I understand the above information regarding my rights as a subject of government data.
